Re Complaint regarding the locking up of the doors of the Sri Anjaneyaswami temple near Malur town

FROM

The Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District

Letter No. 6590/840, Dated 18th March 1907.

One Narasimhaiah of Malur petitioned to this Office complaining that one Bheemaiah got the doors of the Sri Anjaneyaswami temple, a Muzrai Institution at Kandupadi near Malur town, locked up, and consequently the worship had ceased in the temple, and praying that the obstruction might be removed and the puja revived. The petition was forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner Kolar District, for enquiry and report

File No. of Muzrai Secretariat.

The Deputy Commissioners report is now received In it, he states that Narasimhaphan, the Archak of the temple, having had to proceed to Mysore on some urgent private business, he entrusted the performance of the puja in the temple to one Vyasaphan, a teacher in the local Sanskrit School at Malur, that the latter performed puja till about the latter part of December 1906, when he left the place to attend the Sabha at Tirupati in the N. Arcot District, but that as Narasimhaphan had not then returned today, the said Vyasaphan arranged puja being done during his absence by one Narayana Dasaru, a Brahmin of the Sukla Yejus Sakha sect. The Deputy Commissioner further states that one Bhumaphan, a brahmin of the sect to which the permanent Archak Narasimhaphan belongs but bearing no relation to him, seeing that the puja was being done by a person of a different sect, got the doors of the temple locked, as he thought that the performance of the puja in the temple by Narayana Dasaru was not in accordance with religious usage
